

British Pharmaceutical Conference
Practice Research Programme

Oral Sessions at BPC

PRACTICE RESEARCH

Patients, Practitioners and Prescribing: perceptions and processes

Chair: Professor Marjorie Weiss and Professor John Cromarty

WEDNESDAY 12th SEPTEMBER

10.30 – 10.50

Stakeholders' Views of Pharmacist Supplementary Prescribing - Benefits, Barriers, Facilitators and Challenges.

Cooper RJ, Guillaume L, et al

University of Nottingham

10.50 – 11.10

Exploring patient perspectives of pharmacist supplementary prescribing in Scotland

Stewart D, George J, McCaig D, Bond C, Cunningham S, Diack L

The Robert Gordon University, School of Pharmacy

11.10 – 11.30

A cross sectional survey of the general public's awareness, views and attitudes to non-medical prescribing in Scotland

Stewart D, George J, McCaig D, Bond C, Cunningham S, Diack L, Pflieger D, Munro K

The Robert Gordon University, School of Pharmacy

11.30 – 11.50

Development and validation of a tool for evaluating consultation skills of non-medical prescribers

Stewart D, George J, Harkness S, Bond C, Diack L, Cunningham S, Cleland J, McCaig D

The Robert Gordon University, School of Pharmacy

11.50 – 12.10

A survey of General Practitioners perceptions of beta blocker therapy for heart failure.

Petty D.R., Silcock J., Zermansky A.G., Raynor D.K.

University of Leeds

12.10 – 12.30

Uncomfortable prescribing decisions in secondary care: the impact of teamwork

Lewis PJ, Hassell K, Tully MP

University of Manchester