

British Pharmaceutical Conference
Practice Research Programme

Oral Sessions at BPC

PRACTICE RESEARCH

The appropriate use of medicines: the role of information

Chair: Dr Imogen Savage and Dr Paul Bissell

WEDNESDAY 12 SEPTEMBER

14.30 – 14.50

Provision of patient information leaflets with medicines dispensed in community pharmacies

Smith JM, Richardson K

University of Sunderland

14.50 – 15.10

What are patients' opinions about information leaflets provided with medicines in the UK?

Silcock J, Raynor DK, Knapp P, Edmondson H

University of Leeds

15.10 – 15.30

Consumers' beliefs about non-prescription medicines (NPMs) and providing information during consultations for their purchase.

Fearn P, Watson M, Entwistle V, Bond C, Johnston M

University of Aberdeen , Department of General Practice and Primary Care

15.30 – 15.50

Exploring community pharmacists' practices and views on the provision of contraceptive advice

McCraig D, Stewart D, Fitzgerald N, McHattie L, McIntosh T

The Robert Gordon University, School of Pharmacy

15.50 – 16.10

The primary secondary care divide: attempts supporting the provision of seamless care

Crowe S, Tully MP, Cantrill JA

University of Manchester

16.10 – 16.30

Awareness and attitudes of the public on the use of unlicensed and off-label medicines in children

Mukattash T.L., Collier P.S., Millership J., McElnay J.C.

Clinical and Practice Research Group, School of Pharmacy, Queen's University Belfast